Signs That You or Your Church May be Dying

- When you've lost sight of God's presence and ceased listening to His Spirit.
- When the Bible has lost its authority.
- When there's an emphasis on appeasing the world.
- When you are more concerned with pleasing people than pleasing God.
- When you are afraid to confront—last week's message to Thyratira.
- When there is pride in your own accomplishments.
- When you are more concerned about your rituals, rules and formalities than about spirituality, your relationship with God and relationships with one another.
- When you are a spectator rather than a participant—uninvolved.
- When prayer is not a priority. Praying God I need this and this instead of listening for His will.
- When appearance matters more than reality.
- When the past becomes more important than the present.
- When personal comfort outweighs costly service and personal sacrifice.
- When there is no evangelism in your expression—no concern for those who don't know Jesus.
